

<hr style="width: 20%; margin: auto;"/>
Schedule meeting with the freshman advisor required	Reply for financial aid required
Register for courses required	Schedule meeting with the freshman advisor required
Talk with faculty about your possible major	Register for courses required
Sign up for the mentoring program	Apply for scholarships before the first week of February
Attend participate in selected campus events	Attend student club within your major
Talk with parents friends professors about career interest	Explore internships cooperative education and other career related work experiences with Career Services
Attend Participate in the Majors Fair <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explore possible majors • Speak with professors • Determine possible careers 	Attend participate in campus events <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cultural • International diversity • Wellness outdoor athletic
Become active on campus in and out of class activity that is meaningful to you	Take on position of campus leadership
Attend programs on study skills testing time management and goal setting	Investigate summer experiences that will enhance your resume
Seek faculty assistance and tutorial services in the ARC for areas which need strengthening	Review your program of study and consider summer classes if needed to stay on track
Learn about and pursue lifestyle behaviors that contribute to health and wellness	Discuss the possibility of minor with your advisor
Draft beginning resume and have it critiqued by Career Services	Talk with faculty about possible research activities you could be involved in